

MAVERIX METALS FORECASTS SIGNIFICANT GROWTH IN 2018

February 22, 2018, Vancouver, British Columbia – Maverix Metals Inc. (the “Company” or “Maverix”) (TSX-V: MMX) is pleased to provide guidance for 2018. The Company is expecting meaningful increases in both revenue and attributable gold equivalent production in 2018, its second full year of operation.

2018 Outlook

The Company is forecasting the following for 2018⁽¹⁾:

- Attributable gold equivalent production is expected to be 16,500 to 18,500 ounces;
- Revenue is expected to be CAD$26 to CAD$30 million; with
- Approximately 95% of total revenue expected to be from gold and silver.

In 2018, Maverix is expecting an increase of approximately 40% to 50% in attributable gold equivalent production as compared to 2017.

Dan O’Flaherty, President and CEO of Maverix, commented, “Following our record fourth quarter, we are pleased to forecast substantial growth in 2018 as a number of our operating partners continue to ramp up and increase production at their mines. In addition to our current growth, we remain committed to further expanding our portfolio of royalties and streams in 2018 and beyond.”

⁽¹⁾ The forecast provided herein assumes a gold price of US$1,300 per ounce, a silver price of US$16.00 per ounce and a USD to CAD exchange rate of 1.25. Maverix has included certain performance measures in this press release that do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). The Company’s royalty revenue is converted to an attributable gold equivalent ounce basis by dividing the royalty revenue for a period by the average gold price based on the LBMA Gold Price PM Fix per ounce for the same respective period. These attributable gold equivalent ounces when combined with the gold ounces sold from the Company’s gold streams equal total attributable gold equivalent ounces sold and may be subject to change. The presentation of this non-IFRS measure is intended to provide additional information and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for measures of performance prepared in accordance with IFRS. Other companies may calculate these non-IFRS measures differently.
